Bible story	Jesus Calls the Fishermen (Luke 5:1-11; Matthew 4:18-22; John 1:43-51)
Memory verse (NKJV)	Then He said to them, “Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men.” (Matthew 4:19)
Takeaway	Jesus calls me by name to follow Him, and I can say yes and trust Him.
Daily call	Leader: “Jesus said” Kids: “Follow Me!”

Objectives

- Study Luke 5:1-11; Matthew 4:18-22; John 1:43-51 in context.
- Explain what Jesus’ call to follow Him costs (Luke 9:23) and examine their own reasons for following.
- Memorize Matthew 4:19.
- Write a specific, personal application.

Materials

- Bible (NKJV) for the teacher and for each student
- Prop for the attention getter: a fishing net (or mesh laundry bag) and a few paper fish
- Copies of today’s student lesson and activity sheets (one per child)
- Crayons, pencils, and name tags
- Craft supplies: Paper fish shapes; A piece of netting or a fishnet hung on the wall; Pens; Index cards

Teacher preparation

- Read Luke 5:1-11; Matthew 4:18-22; John 1:43-51 in your own Bible at least twice this week.
- Read the matching “31 Days with Jesus” devotionals at The Preacher’s Pen: Day 11: Calling the Disciples (Answering the Call); Day 16: The Great Catch (Trusting Jesus with Your Future).
- Make copies, prepare craft pieces, and set out the prop before children arrive.

Background for the teacher

- The Sea of Galilee is a freshwater lake about 13 miles long and 8 miles wide. Luke calls it the Lake of Gennesaret (Luke 5:1).
- Fishing was usually done at night with large nets. In the morning the nets were washed and mended (Luke 5:2; Matthew 4:21).
- Peter and Andrew were brothers. James and John were brothers, the sons of Zebedee, and partners with Peter (Luke 5:10).
- John 1:35-51 shows that some of these men had already met Jesus earlier. Luke 5 is the day they left their work to follow Him full time.
- Jesus calls ordinary people, like fishermen, to follow Him (Matthew 4:18-22).
- Following Jesus means trusting Him even when we do not understand (Luke 5:5).
- Jesus knows each of us by name (John 1:47-48; John 10:27).
- Following Jesus means leaving behind anything that keeps us from Him (Luke 5:11).

Discussion starter

What would it take for you to walk away from your plans, your phone, or your job today? What is worth leaving everything for?

Bible study

Teach from an open Bible so students see that the story comes from God's word. Use this script as a guide; tell it in your own words.

Following Jesus begins with a call. In John 1:43 Jesus found Philip and said two words: "Follow Me." In the Gospels, the word follow is more than walking behind someone. A disciple followed a teacher to learn his words and copy his life. Jesus was inviting ordinary working men into a whole new way of living.

Luke 5:1-11 shows how that call worked in real life. Peter, Andrew, James, and John were professional fishermen on the Lake of Gennesaret. After a long night with empty nets, a carpenter from Nazareth told Peter how to fish. Peter's answer is the heart of discipleship: "Master, we have toiled all night and caught nothing; nevertheless at Your word I will let down the net" (Luke 5:5). Peter did not understand, but he obeyed.

The result was overwhelming: breaking nets and sinking boats. Peter's response is worth noticing. He did not ask for a business partnership. He fell on his knees and said, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord!" (Luke 5:8). Seeing who Jesus is always shows us who we are. Yet Jesus answered with grace and purpose: "Do not be afraid. From now on you will catch men" (Luke 5:10).

The cost was real. They “forsook all and followed Him” (Luke 5:11). Peter and Andrew left their nets. James and John left their boat and their father (Matthew 4:20-22). Jesus later said, “If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow Me” (Luke 9:23).

Why do people follow Jesus? Some follow a crowd. Some follow out of habit or because their family always has (compare 2 Timothy 1:5, where Timothy’s faith had to become his own). Some followed Jesus only for the loaves and fish (John 6:26). The fishermen followed because they saw who He was. The real question for every teen is personal: Why do you follow Jesus, and will you follow Him when it costs you something?

Discussion questions

1. Peter said, “nevertheless at Your word.” Where do you find it hardest to obey Jesus when it does not make sense to you?
2. Why does seeing Jesus clearly make us aware of our own sin (Luke 5:8)?
3. What are the “nets” people your age hold onto instead of following Jesus?
4. Read Luke 9:23. What does it cost to follow Jesus daily?

Review

- What is the big idea of today’s lesson? (Jesus calls me by name to follow Him, and I can say yes and trust Him.)
- Quote Matthew 4:19.
- Jesus calls ordinary people, like fishermen, to follow Him (Matthew 4:18-22).
- Following Jesus means trusting Him even when we do not understand (Luke 5:5).
- Jesus knows each of us by name (John 1:47-48; John 10:27).
- Following Jesus means leaving behind anything that keeps us from Him (Luke 5:11).

Memory verse activity

Have students write the verse from memory, then discuss its key words and how it connects to today’s text.

Craft (Craft Time): Leave Your Nets

Materials: Paper fish shapes; A piece of netting or a fishnet hung on the wall; Pens; Index cards

1. On a paper fish, each student writes one “net” (habit, distraction, or fear) that keeps people their age from following Jesus. (Keep it anonymous.)
2. Clip the fish to the net and read a few aloud for discussion.
3. On an index card, write Luke 9:23 and one specific step you will take this week.
4. Keep the card in your Bible as a reminder.

Recreation and snack

Game: Fishers of Men Tag: one child is “Peter”. Tagged children join hands and become part of the “net” until everyone is caught. For little ones, play Follow the Leader.

Snack: Fish-shaped crackers in a small paper boat or cup (“nets full of fish”) with water. Always check allergy information on registration cards before serving food.

Songs (a cappella)

Sing without instruments. Suggested titles: I Have Decided to Follow Jesus; I Will Make You Fishers of Men; Footprints of Jesus; Jesus Loves Me; Where He Leads Me.

Hear and Do! | The Sermon on the Mount and the Wise and Foolish Builders

Bible story	The Sermon on the Mount and the Wise and Foolish Builders (Matthew 5:1-16; 6:9-13, 33; 7:12, 24-29)
Memory verse (NKJV)	"Therefore whoever hears these sayings of Mine, and does them, I will liken him to a wise man who built his house on the rock." (Matthew 7:24)
Takeaway	Following Jesus means listening to His words and doing what He says.
Daily call	Leader: "Hear" Kids: "And do!"

Objectives

- Study Matthew 5:1-16; 6:9-13, 33; 7:12, 24-29 in context.
- Explain why hearing without doing is self-deception (Matthew 7:24-27; James 1:22).
- Memorize Matthew 7:24.
- Write a specific, personal application.

Materials

- Bible (NKJV) for the teacher and for each student
- Prop for the attention getter: a rock and a cup of sand
- Copies of today's student lesson and activity sheets (one per child)
- Crayons, pencils, and name tags
- Craft supplies: Smooth stones or gray paper stones; Paint pens or markers; Bibles

Teacher preparation

- Read Matthew 5:1-16; 6:9-13, 33; 7:12, 24-29 in your own Bible at least twice this week.
- Read the matching "31 Days with Jesus" devotionals at The Preacher's Pen: Day 14: The Sermon on the Mount (Embracing Jesus' Blueprint for Faith); Day 18: The Parables of Jesus (Lessons for Life); Day 20: Jesus Teaches on Prayer.
- Make copies, prepare craft pieces, and set out the prop before children arrive.

Background for the teacher

- Jesus sat down to teach (Matthew 5:1). In that culture, rabbis normally sat while teaching.
- Many houses in Galilee were built of stone. Dry streambeds could flash flood in a heavy rain, washing away anything built on sand.
- Luke 6:20-49 records a similar sermon, sometimes called the Sermon on the Plain.
- "Authority" (Matthew 7:29): the scribes quoted earlier teachers; Jesus spoke on His own authority ("But I say to you," Matthew 5:22, 28, 32, 34, 39, 44).
- Jesus is the greatest Teacher. He taught "as one having authority" (Matthew 7:29).
- Jesus teaches us how to live: be salt and light, love others, pray, and seek God first (Matthew 5-7).
- Hearing is not enough. The wise person hears Jesus and does what He says (Matthew 7:24; James 1:22).
- A life built on Jesus' words stands strong when storms come (Matthew 7:25).

Discussion starter

Who is the best teacher you have ever had? What made them great? Was it what they knew or how they changed you?

Bible study

Teach from an open Bible so students see that the story comes from God's word. Use this script as a guide; tell it in your own words.

Matthew 7:28-29 tells us how the first audience reacted to the Sermon on the Mount: "the people were astonished at His teaching, for He taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes." The scribes quoted other rabbis. Jesus said, "But I say to you." He spoke as the One who has the right to tell us how to live.

The sermon is a blueprint for disciples. It starts with character (Matthew 5:3-12). Your attitude is one of the keys to how you will receive the words of Jesus. It moves to influence: salt and light, so that others "may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven" (Matthew 5:16). Then Jesus goes to the heart: anger as well as murder, lust as well as adultery, honesty without oaths, and love for enemies (Matthew 5:21-48).

In chapter 6 Jesus addresses motives. Do you give, pray, and fast to be seen by people or by God (Matthew 6:1-18)? The pride of doing good to be praised by others is still with us. Then He addresses priorities: treasure in heaven, a single focus, freedom from worry, and "seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness" (Matthew 6:19-34).

Chapter 7 calls for decisions: how we treat others (Matthew 7:1-12), which road we take (7:13-14), which teachers we trust (7:15-23), and which foundation we build on (7:24-27). Notice that both builders heard the same words and faced the same storm. Storms come to everyone. The only difference was obedience.

Jesus taught by words, by actions, by being close to people, and by stories. But He never taught just to inform. He taught to transform. James says it plainly: "But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves" (James 1:22). Following Jesus is not proven by how much we know, but by what we do with what we know.

Discussion questions

1. What does it mean that Jesus taught "as one having authority"? How should that change how we read His words?
2. Jesus addresses the heart, not just actions (Matthew 5:21-28). Why does He go deeper than outward rules?
3. Matthew 6 talks about doing good to be seen. Where do you see that temptation today, including on social media?
4. What does "seek first the kingdom of God" look like for a student?

Review

- What is the big idea of today's lesson? (Following Jesus means listening to His words and doing what He says.)
- Quote Matthew 7:24.
- Jesus is the greatest Teacher. He taught "as one having authority" (Matthew 7:29).

- Hearing is not enough. The wise person hears Jesus and does what He says (Matthew 7:24; James 1:22).
- A life built on Jesus' words stands strong when storms come (Matthew 7:25).

Memory verse activity

Have students write the verse from memory, then discuss its key words and how it connects to today's text.

Craft (Craft Time): Foundation Stones

Materials: Smooth stones or gray paper stones; Paint pens or markers; Bibles

1. Each student chooses three teachings from Matthew 5-7 that are hard to live out.
2. Write a short phrase and reference on each stone (for example, "Love enemies, Matthew 5:44").
3. Share one with the group and how you could do it this week.
4. Keep the stones on a desk or dresser as a reminder to build on the rock.

Recreation and snack

Game: Rock or Sand Relay: teams carry a beanbag "brick" to a gray mat (rock) and must avoid the tan mat (sand). Or play "Hear and Do" (like Simon Says): kids only move when they clearly hear the instruction.

Snack: "House on the Rock": a graham cracker square (house) on a cereal-treat square (rock). Offer a nut-free option. Always check allergy information on registration cards before serving food.

Sing without instruments. Suggested titles: The Wise Man Built His House Upon the Rock; This Little Light of Mine; Wonderful Words of Life; Trust and Obey; Read Your Bible, Pray Every Day.

If someone looked only at your actions this week, what would they think you believe about Jesus?

Pick one teaching from Matthew 5-7 that you have heard but not done. Write a plan to do it this week.

What storms are you facing right now? Is your life built on the rock?

Real life this week

- Choose one command from Matthew 5-7 and practice it every day this week (for example, Matthew 5:44 or Matthew 7:12).
- Pray the model prayer (Matthew 6:9-13) slowly each morning, thinking about each line.
- Do one good work quietly this week without telling anyone (Matthew 6:3-4).

Day 3: Jesus Shows Me How to Love

Serve Like Jesus! | Jesus Washes the Disciples' Feet

Bible story	Jesus Washes the Disciples' Feet (John 13:1-17, 34-35; Luke 22:24-27)
Memory verse (NKJV)	"For I have given you an example, that you should do as I have done to you." (John 13:15)
Takeaway	Following Jesus means loving and serving others the way He loved and served us.
Daily call	Leader: "Serve" Kids: "Like Jesus!"

Objectives

- Study John 13:1-17, 34-35; Luke 22:24-27 in context.
- Describe the servant heart Jesus modeled (John 13:14-15; Philippians 2:3-8) and plan a way to serve.
- Memorize John 13:15.
- Write a specific, personal application.

Materials

- Bible (NKJV) for the teacher and for each student
- Prop for the attention getter: a towel, a basin (bowl), and a pitcher of water
- Copies of today's student lesson and activity sheets (one per child)
- Crayons, pencils, and name tags
- Craft supplies: Note cards and envelopes; Pens; List of shut-ins or members to encourage (from the church office)

Teacher preparation

- Read John 13:1-17, 34-35; Luke 22:24-27 in your own Bible at least twice this week.
- Read the matching "31 Days with Jesus" devotionals at The Preacher's Pen: Day 25: The Lord's Supper (Remembering Jesus); Day 30: "Do You Love Me?" (Renewed Love and Calling); Day 19: Miracles of Jesus (Trusting God's Provision).
- Make copies, prepare craft pieces, and set out the prop before children arrive.

Background for the teacher

- Foot washing was a sign of hospitality (Genesis 18:4; 1 Timothy 5:10) and one of the lowliest servant tasks (1 Samuel 25:41).
- Order of events that night (from the class lesson): Passover begins (Luke 22:15-18), the disciples dispute about greatness (Luke 22:24-30), Jesus washes their feet (John 13:1-17), the betrayer is revealed (John 13:21-30), the Lord's Supper is instituted (Matthew 26:26-29), and the new commandment is given (John 13:34-35).
- Jesus' act was an example of humble service, not a new act of worship. The apostles taught the attitude behind it (Romans 12:10; Philippians 2:3-8).
- Jesus loved His disciples "to the end" (John 13:1), even the one who would betray Him.
- The Lord and Teacher took the lowest servant's job and washed dirty feet (John 13:4-5).
- Jesus gave us an example of humble, loving service to follow (John 13:14-15).
- People will know we are His disciples by our love for one another (John 13:34-35).

Lesson plan (40 minutes)

0:05-0:20	Bible study	Read the passages together and teach the lesson (script below).
0:20-0:30	Discussion	Small groups of 3 to 4 work through the discussion questions.

0:33-0:38	Study sheet	Begin the study sheet in pairs; finish the journal page at home.
0:38-0:40	Application and prayer	Each student names one action step. Prayer.

Discussion starter

Rank these from most wanted to least wanted: team captain, cleaning bathrooms, class president, taking out the trash. Why do we rank them that way?

Bible study

Teach from an open Bible so students see that the story comes from God's word. Use this script as a guide; tell it in your own words.

John 13 opens with one of the most moving sentences in the Gospels: "Jesus knew that His hour had come that He should depart from this world to the Father, having loved His own who were in the world, He loved them to the end" (John 13:1). Jesus knew the cross was hours away. Yet His focus was not on His own suffering but on teaching and serving His disciples.

The disciples, meanwhile, were arguing about rank and places of honor (Luke 22:24). Foot washing was the job of the lowest servant, and none of the twelve volunteered. So Jesus rose, prepared Himself like a servant, and washed their feet (John 13:4-5). It was genuine loving service, an act of humility, and a courtesy their pride had made them forget. He washed Judas' feet too, overcoming evil with good.

Peter's objection (John 13:6-8) sounds respectful, but good intentions become dangerous when they lead us to refuse the Lord's will. Peter was letting his own reasoning be his guide. Jesus' answer was firm: "If I do not wash you, you have no part with Me." Discipleship means surrendering to the way of humility Jesus came to teach, even when we do not yet understand.

Jesus explained His action: as Teacher and Lord, He had served them, so they ought to serve one another (John 13:13-15). The apostles never taught foot washing as a church ritual or act of worship. They taught what it pictured: lowliness of mind, subjection, and loving service (Philippians 2:3-8; Galatians 5:13; 1 Peter 5:5). The point is a servant's heart.

This kind of love comes from God. "In this is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the propitiation for our sins" (1 John 4:10). Real love acts: "If you love Me, keep My commandments" (John 14:15). When you are tempted to think about your place, your rights, or your reputation, picture the Son of God with a towel around His waist, kneeling at the disciples' feet.

Discussion questions

1. Jesus knew the cross was coming, yet He served others. What does that tell you about His love?
2. Peter's intentions were good but he resisted Jesus. How can good intentions lead us away from obedience?
3. Why do you think the apostles taught humility and service instead of a foot washing ritual?
4. Where is the "who is the greatest" attitude strong in your world?

Review

- What is the big idea of today's lesson? (Following Jesus means loving and serving others the way He loved and served us.)
- Quote John 13:15.
- Jesus loved His disciples "to the end" (John 13:1), even the one who would betray Him.
- The Lord and Teacher took the lowest servant's job and washed dirty feet (John 13:4-5).
- Jesus gave us an example of humble, loving service to follow (John 13:14-15).
- People will know we are His disciples by our love for one another (John 13:34-35).

Memory verse activity

Have students write the verse from memory, then discuss its key words and how it connects to today's text.

Craft (Craft Time): Towel and Basin Service Project

Materials: Note cards and envelopes; Pens; List of shut-ins or members to encourage (from the church office)

1. Read Philippians 2:3-8 together.
2. Each student writes two encouraging notes to members who are homebound, sick, or serving.
3. Plan one practical service the class can do before VBS ends (clean classrooms, help the nursery, serve snack).
4. Report back on Day 5.

Recreation and snack

Game: Servant Relay: teams pass a towel and a dry bowl down the line, each child naming one way to help someone before passing it. Or "Serve the Team": kids carry cotton balls on a spoon to fill a teammate's cup.

Snack: "Towel rolls": rolled fruit snacks or tortilla roll-ups, with a cup of water. Older classes can serve snack to a younger class today. Always check allergy information on registration cards before serving food.

Songs (a cappella)

Sing without instruments. Suggested titles: Jesus Loves the Little Children; Oh, How I Love Jesus; Deep and Wide; Footprints of Jesus; Jesus Loves Me.

Jesus Shows Me How to Love: Serve Like Jesus! | Jesus Washes the Disciples' Feet (John 13:1-17, 34-35; Luke 22:24-27)

Text: John 13:1-17, 34-35; Luke 22:24-27

Jesus Washes the Disciples' Feet

John 13 opens with one of the most moving sentences in the Gospels: "Jesus knew that His hour had come that He should depart from this world to the Father, having loved His own who were in the world, He loved them to the end" (John 13:1). Jesus knew the cross was hours away. Yet His focus was not on His own suffering but on teaching and serving His disciples.

The disciples, meanwhile, were arguing about rank and places of honor (Luke 22:24). Foot washing was the job of the lowest servant, and none of the twelve volunteered. So Jesus rose, prepared Himself like a servant, and washed their feet (John 13:4-5). It was genuine loving service, an act of humility, and a courtesy their pride had made them forget. He washed Judas' feet too, overcoming evil with good.

Peter's objection (John 13:6-8) sounds respectful, but good intentions become dangerous when they lead us to refuse the Lord's will. Peter was letting his own reasoning be his guide. Day 4: Jesus Saves Me

He Is Risen! | The Cross and the Empty Tomb

Bible story	The Cross and the Empty Tomb (Matthew 27:27-28:10; Luke 23:33-46; John 19:30)
Memory verse (NKJV)	"He is not here; for He is risen, as He said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay." (Matthew 28:6)
Takeaway	Jesus died for my sins, was buried, and rose again, so I can be saved and live with Him.
Daily call	Leader: "He is not here" Kids: "He is risen!"

Objectives

- Study Matthew 27:27-28:10; Luke 23:33-46; John 19:30 in context.
- Explain why Jesus died and how His death, burial, and resurrection connect to baptism (Romans 6:3-4).
- Memorize Matthew 28:6.
- Write a specific, personal application.

Materials

- Bible (NKJV) for the teacher and for each student
- Prop for the attention getter: a large gray ball or paper "stone" and an empty box
- Copies of today's student lesson and activity sheets (one per child)
- Crayons, pencils, and name tags
- Craft supplies: Folded half-sheets (five panels); Pens; Bibles

Teacher preparation

- Read Matthew 27:27-28:10; Luke 23:33-46; John 19:30 in your own Bible at least twice this week.
- Read the matching "31 Days with Jesus" devotionals at The Preacher's Pen: Day 26: The Crucifixion (The Ultimate Sacrifice); Day 27: The Guarded Tomb (Waiting in Hope); Day 28: The Resurrection (Risen Indeed).
- Make copies, prepare craft pieces, and set out the prop before children arrive.

Background for the teacher

- Crucifixion was reserved for slaves, rebels, and the worst criminals. Roman citizens were normally exempt.
- The sign above the cross was written in Hebrew, Greek, and Latin (John 19:20).
- The tomb was cut out of rock and sealed with a large stone. The guard and the seal made tampering a serious crime (Matthew 27:62-66).
- Jesus was in the tomb parts of three days (Friday, Saturday, Sunday), rising "the third day" (1 Corinthians 15:4).
- Jesus, the sinless Son of God, willingly died on the cross for our sins (Romans 5:8; 2 Corinthians 5:21).
- Jesus was buried in a borrowed tomb that was sealed and guarded (Matthew 27:57-66).
- On the third day Jesus rose from the dead, just as He said (Matthew 28:6; 1 Corinthians 15:3-4).
- Because Jesus lives, we have forgiveness, hope, and good news to tell (Matthew 28:7).

Lesson plan (40 minutes)

Discussion starter

Read 1 Corinthians 1:18 aloud. Why would anyone call the message of the cross foolishness? Why do Christians call it power?

Bible study

Teach from an open Bible so students see that the story comes from God's word. Use this script as a guide; tell it in your own words.

What does the cross of Christ mean to you? Many of us have heard about it so often that it can lose its effect. Paul warned that the cross could be "made of no effect" (1 Corinthians 1:17). "For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God" (1 Corinthians 1:18).

Roman crucifixion was a slave's punishment. The first-century historian Josephus called it the most wretched of deaths. Victims were usually scourged, made to carry the crossbeam, nailed to it, and left exposed, with their crime posted above their heads. Jesus endured all of this: Barabbas was released in His place, and Jesus was stripped, crowned with thorns, mocked, spit upon, struck, and nailed to the cross under the charge, "THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS" (Matthew 27:26-37; Isaiah 50:6).

Why? Luke 24 shows two disciples on the road to Emmaus who needed their eyes opened to this. The Who: God the Father gave the Son (John 3:16). The What: Jesus is the propitiation for our sins (1 John 2:2), the Lamb who takes away sin (John 1:29), our Passover (1 Corinthians 5:7). The When: at the appointed time, fulfilling Scripture (Matthew 26:18; John 19:30). The Why: "for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God" (Romans 3:23), and

God “made Him who knew no sin to be sin for us, that we might become the righteousness of God in Him” (2 Corinthians 5:21).

The burial matters too. Jesus was laid in a rich man’s new tomb, as Isaiah 53:9 foretold, sealed with a stone and guarded by soldiers (Matthew 27:57-66). Paul connects His burial to ours: “we were buried with Him through baptism into death, that just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life” (Romans 6:4).

Then came the first day of the week: an earthquake, an angel, a rolled-away stone, terrified guards, and the announcement, “He is not here; for He is risen, as He said” (Matthew 28:6). The resurrection is the foundation of our faith. It declares Jesus to be the Son of God with power (Romans 1:4) and shows that sin and death do not have the final word. The question is not only whether Jesus rose, but whether you have died to sin and been raised with Him.

> Teacher note for today
> Students may ask about baptism. Answer from Scripture (Romans 6:3-4; Acts 2:38) and encourage them to talk with their parents and with [PLACEHOLDER: minister or elder contact name and phone].

Discussion questions

1. Has the cross ever “lost its effect” on you? How can we keep from becoming hard-hearted about it?
2. Walk through the Who, What, When, How, and Why of the cross. Which one means the most to you?
3. Why is the resurrection the foundation of the Christian faith (1 Corinthians 15:14-17)?
4. How does Romans 6:3-4 connect Jesus’ death, burial, and resurrection to baptism?

Review

- What is the big idea of today’s lesson? (Jesus died for my sins, was buried, and rose again, so I can be saved and live with Him.)
- Quote Matthew 28:6.
- Jesus, the sinless Son of God, willingly died on the cross for our sins (Romans 5:8; 2 Corinthians 5:21).
- Jesus was buried in a borrowed tomb that was sealed and guarded (Matthew 27:57-66).
- On the third day Jesus rose from the dead, just as He said (Matthew 28:6; 1 Corinthians 15:3-4).
- Because Jesus lives, we have forgiveness, hope, and good news to tell (Matthew 28:7).

Memory verse activity

Have students write the verse from memory, then discuss its key words and how it connects to today’s text.

Craft (Craft Time): The Who, What, When, How, and Why of the Cross

Materials: Folded half-sheets (five panels); Pens; Bibles

1. Label each panel: Who, What, When, How, Why.
2. Fill each panel with a verse from today’s lesson (John 3:16; 1 John 2:2; John 19:30; Galatians 3:13; 2 Corinthians 5:21).
3. Write one sentence of response on the back.
4. Keep it in your Bible for the Lord’s Supper.

Recreation and snack

Game: Roll the Stone: teams roll a large ball (the stone) along a course to the finish. Or “He Is Risen!” freeze tag: tagged players crouch until a teammate taps them and shouts, “He is risen!”

Snack: “Empty tomb”: half a mini pita or a round roll (the tomb) with a grape or round cracker “stone” rolled beside it. Open the pita to show it is empty. Always check allergy information on registration cards before serving food.

Songs (a cappella)

Sing without instruments. Suggested titles: Low in the Grave He Lay (Up from the Grave He Arose); Jesus, Keep Me Near the Cross; Nothing but the Blood; Jesus Loves Me; He Is Lord.

Student Lesson

Jesus Saves Me: He Is Risen! | The Cross and the Empty Tomb (Matthew 27:27-28:10; Luke 23:33-46; John 19:30)

Text: Matthew 27:27-28:10; Luke 23:33-46; John 19:30

The Cross and the Empty Tomb

What does the cross of Christ mean to you? Many of us have heard about it so often that it can lose its effect. Paul warned that the cross could be "made of no effect" (1 Corinthians 1:17). "For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God" (1 Corinthians 1:18).

Roman crucifixion was a slave's punishment. The first-century historian Josephus called it the most wretched of deaths. Victims were usually scourged, made to carry the crossbeam, nailed to it, and left exposed, with their crime posted above their heads. Jesus endured all of this: Barabbas was released in His place, and Jesus was stripped, crowned with thorns, mocked, spit upon, struck, and nailed to the cross under the charge, "THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS" (Matthew 27:26-37; Isaiah 50:6).

Why? Luke 24 shows two disciples on the road to Emmaus who needed their eyes opened to this. The Who: God the Father gave the Son (John 3:16). The What: Jesus is the propitiation for our sins (1 John 2:2), the Lamb who takes away sin (John 1:29), our Passover (1 Corinthians 5:7). The When: at the appointed time, fulfilling Scripture (Matthew 26:18; John 19:30). The Why: "for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God" (Romans 3:23), and God "made Him who knew no sin to be sin for us, that we might become the righteousness of God in Him" (2 Corinthians 5:21).

The burial matters too. Jesus was laid in a rich man's new tomb, as Isaiah 53:9 foretold, sealed with a stone and guarded by soldiers (Matthew 27:57-66). Paul connects His burial to ours: "we were buried with Him through baptism into death, that just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life" (Romans 6:4).

Then came the first day of the week: an earthquake, an angel, a rolled-away stone, terrified guards, and the announcement, "He is not here; for He is risen, as He said" (Matthew 28:6). The resurrection is the foundation of our faith. It declares Jesus to be the Son of God with power (Romans 1:4) and shows that sin and death do not have the final word. The question is not only whether Jesus rose, but whether you have died to sin and been raised with Him.

> "He is not here; for He is risen, as He said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay."
>
> Matthew 28:6 (NKJV)

Four points to remember

- Jesus, the sinless Son of God, willingly died on the cross for our sins (Romans 5:8; 2 Corinthians 5:21).
- Jesus was buried in a borrowed tomb that was sealed and guarded (Matthew 27:57-66).
- On the third day Jesus rose from the dead, just as He said (Matthew 28:6; 1 Corinthians 15:3-4).
- Because Jesus lives, we have forgiveness, hope, and good news to tell (Matthew 28:7).

Discuss

1. Has the cross ever “lost its effect” on you? How can we keep from becoming hard-hearted about it?
2. Walk through the Who, What, When, How, and Why of the cross. Which one means the most to you?
3. Why is the resurrection the foundation of the Christian faith (1 Corinthians 15:14-17)?
4. How does Romans 6:3-4 connect Jesus’ death, burial, and resurrection to baptism?

Live it

- Read one Gospel account of the crucifixion and resurrection this week (Matthew 26-28, Mark 14-16, Luke 22-24, or John 18-20).
- When you take the Lord’s Supper this Sunday, think about the Who, What, When, How, and Why of the cross.
- If you have questions about obeying the gospel, talk with your parents, a teacher, or one of the preachers or elders this week.

Because Jesus is alive, what fear or worry can you hand over to Him?

Memory verse (NKJV)	And He said to them, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. He who believes and is baptized will be saved; but he who does not believe will be condemned." (Mark 16:15-16)
Takeaway	Jesus sends His followers to tell the good news, and everyone who hears can obey it the way people did in Acts 2.
Daily call	Leader: "Go" Kids: "And tell!"

Objectives

- Study Matthew 28:18-20; Mark 16:15-16; Acts 1:3-11; Acts 2:22-41 in context.
- Walk through the Acts 2 response to the gospel using Scripture (hear, believe, repent, confess, be baptized).
- Memorize Mark 16:15-16.
- Write a specific, personal application.

Materials

- Bible (NKJV) for the teacher and for each student
- Prop for the attention getter: a globe or world map
- Copies of today's student lesson and activity sheets (one per child)
- Crayons, pencils, and name tags
- Craft supplies: Invitation cards; Pens; Church information slips [PLACEHOLDER: service times and address]

Teacher preparation

- Read Matthew 28:18-20; Mark 16:15-16; Acts 1:3-11; Acts 2:22-41 in your own Bible at least twice this week.
- Read the matching "31 Days with Jesus" devotionals at The Preacher's Pen: Day 31: The Ascension (Empowered to Go); Day 29: Breakfast with Jesus (Restoration and Purpose); Conclusion: The Journey Continues.
- Make copies, prepare craft pieces, and set out the prop before children arrive.

Background for the teacher

- Pentecost ("fiftieth") was a Jewish feast held fifty days after Passover. Jews from many nations were in Jerusalem (Acts 2:5-11).
- Jesus was seen for forty days after His resurrection (Acts 1:3), so Pentecost came about ten days after the ascension.
- "Remission" (Acts 2:38) means forgiveness, the sending away of sins.
- Conversions in Acts include hearing the gospel and being baptized (for example Acts 8:12, 35-38; 16:30-34; 22:16).
- Before He went back to heaven, Jesus sent His followers into all the world with the gospel (Matthew 28:18-20; Mark 16:15).
- Jesus ascended to heaven and will come again (Acts 1:9-11).
- On Pentecost people heard the gospel, believed, repented, and were baptized for the remission of sins (Acts 2:36-41).
- Every follower of Jesus has good news to share and a life of faithfulness to live (Acts 1:8; Revelation 2:10).

Discussion starter

If you could send one message to every person on earth, what would it say? Jesus actually gave His followers that job.

Bible study

Teach from an open Bible so students see that the story comes from God's word. Use this script as a guide; tell it in your own words.

Jesus did not leave His followers with a nice memory. He left them with a mission. "All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you" (Matthew 28:18-20). Mark records the same charge: "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. He who believes and is baptized will be saved" (Mark 16:15-16).

Forty days after the resurrection, Jesus ascended (Acts 1:3, 9). The ascension was not the end of His work but the beginning of theirs. "But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me" (Acts 1:8). The question from the two men in white still fits: "why do you stand gazing up into heaven?" (Acts 1:11). There was work to do, and Jesus will return.

Acts 2 shows the Great Commission carried out for the first time. Peter preached Jesus crucified and raised (Acts 2:22-36). The crowd heard, believed, and were cut to the heart. Their question, "Men and brethren, what shall we do?" (Acts 2:37), received an inspired answer: "Repent, and let every one of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins; and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit" (Acts 2:38). About three thousand obeyed (Acts 2:41).

Jesus Himself taught every step of this response: hearing (Matthew 7:24; Romans 10:17), believing (John 8:24; Mark 16:16), repenting (Luke 13:3; Luke 24:47), confessing (Matthew 10:32-33; Romans 10:9-10), and being baptized (Matthew 28:19; Mark 16:16). Paul does not describe baptism as a symbol of something that already happened; he describes it as the point where we are buried with Christ and raised to walk in newness of life (Romans 6:3-4; Acts 22:16). Then Jesus calls us to be faithful until death (Revelation 2:10).

Following Jesus always ends in going for Jesus. You do not need a pulpit to be a witness. Philip simply said, "Come and see" (John 1:46). The journey does not end at VBS. Keep seeking Jesus daily, obey Him fully, and share Him with the people He places in your life.

Presenting the gospel response

Step	What it means	Scripture
Hear	Listen to and learn God's word about Jesus	Romans 10:17; Matthew 7:24
Believe	Trust that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God	John 8:24; Mark 16:16; Hebrews 11:6
Repent	Turn away from sin and turn to God	Acts 2:38; Luke 13:3
Confess	Say with your mouth that Jesus is Lord	Romans 10:9-10; Matthew 10:32
Be baptized	Be buried with Christ in water for the remission of sins	Acts 2:38; Mark 16:16; Romans 6:3-4; Acts 22:16
Live faithfully	Keep following Jesus every day	Acts 2:42; Revelation 2:10

Guidance for teachers

- Teach these steps straight from the open Bible (Acts 2:36-41), as the people on Pentecost obeyed.
- Do not lead a "sinner's prayer." The Bible's answer to "What shall we do?" is Acts 2:38.
- If a student expresses a desire to be baptized, affirm them, pray with them, and connect them with their parents and with [PLACEHOLDER: minister or elder contact]. Never pressure a child.
- Record any questions or interest on the follow-up card for the VBS director.

Discussion questions

1. Why do you think Jesus gave His followers a mission instead of just a memory?
2. Trace each step in Acts 2: hear, believe, repent, confess, be baptized. Where is each one taught by Jesus?
3. What does Romans 6:3-4 teach happens in baptism?
4. What would "Jerusalem, Judea, Samaria, and the end of the earth" look like for you?

Review

- What is the big idea of today's lesson? (Jesus sends His followers to tell the good news, and everyone who hears can obey it the way people did in Acts 2.)
- Quote Mark 16:15-16.

- Before He went back to heaven, Jesus sent His followers into all the world with the gospel (Matthew 28:18-20; Mark 16:15).

Journal

Have you obeyed the gospel the way the people did in Acts 2? If not, what questions or obstacles stand in your way? If so, how are you continuing steadfastly (Acts 2:42)?

Write the names of three people who need to hear about Jesus. Pray for them by name this week.

Write out, in your own words, how you would show a friend from the Bible what to do to be saved.

Real life this week

- Practice explaining Acts 2:36-41 from your own Bible to a parent or friend.
- Invite someone to worship with you this Sunday.
- Choose one way to keep following Jesus after VBS: daily Bible reading, faithful attendance, or serving at church.
